⊕ Synthesis of deliberations:

After the opening ceremony, speakers from international and regional organisations and Member States made presentations in plenary sessions on various fields dealing with single window issues.

They demonstrated how modernized customs and border infrastructure and procedures benefit the public administrations and private sector through more effective and efficient deployment of resources, efficient revenue collection, improved trader compliance, enhanced security, integrity & transparency and reduced transaction costs for imports and exports.

In addition to political will and commitment, the importance of having a lead agency, strong linkages with international institutions, sound and sustainable financing arrangements and well defined objectives and action plans were listed as conditions for the success of National Trade Facilitation Committees, the collaborative platform meant to manage trade facilitation initiatives at a country level, in line with recommendations from international organizations.

OIC MCs are in different stages in implementing national Single window systems. Currently, 43 OIC MCs have implemented different types of single window system. It is worth to highlight that lessons learnt from the implementation explicitly have proven to us that National Trade Facilitation Committees are critical success factors to migrate to nationwide single window applications.

The establishment of the OIC Single Window for the benefit of economic operators of Member States could be an efficient tool for intra-OIC trade facilitation and enhancement through the involvement of customs administrations and financial institutions and could contribute to achieving the goals of the New Ten-Year Programme of Action (TYPOA) consisting of the increase of the share of the intra-OIC Trade to 25% by 2025.

Experts and representatives were of the views to:

- Developing a vision for the national Single Window - The Trade Facilitation Roadmap;
- integrating many different trade platforms;
- Identifying relevant national, regional and global trends that will affect national competitiveness in the future;
- establishing or increasing co-operation between Customs, Other Government Agencies and border control authorities in order to electronically share documents (data) and establish common procedures for processing and control;
- providing trade and transport operators with a single submission for trade documents and information to satisfy all import, export and transit regulatory requirements;
- Standardization of the single window data.
- Developing a master plan for the development of each trade platform:
  - Decomposition of challenge in sub projects
  - Structured approach to SW implementation:
    - Objectives and KPI
    - Process Analysis and simplification

- Document and data harmonization standards
- Legal framework
- Define different implementation phases
- Measure implementation progress
- Ensure stakeholder and policy support.

⊕ Recommendations:

At the end of the workshop, in line with the content of the agenda and as an overview of the discussions and exchanges arising from the presentations, participants took part in an interactive discussion aimed at defining a set of specific strategic actions to be taken in the short and medium term within the framework of the workshop on Single Window and e-trade.

LATEST DEVELOPMENTS:

Within the framework of the follow-up of the implementation of the ACMOI and TISC resolutions, the Islamic Center for Development of Trade (ICDT) and PORTNET S.A., - National Single Window of Foreign Trade Procedures of the Kingdom of Morocco, agreed to cooperate in the development of practical tools aimed at facilitating the implementation of the Single Window system in the OIC Member States.

The mission consists in setting up all the necessary preconditions for the deployment of the Single Window, particularly through a Practical guide containing: the operating framework, the objectives, the service offer (including the creation of a reception, information and guidance service and the tools relating to the Single Window).

The mission also includes the training of the future Single Window operators on the personalized approach and the personalization of the service to be provided, as well as on the implementation of the Single Window service offering and the use of its tools.

It is therefore necessary to revitalize all countries that have not yet set up a Single Window system around a common project in order to help them to operationalize its implementation.

For this purpose, ICDT and PORTNET S.A will join their efforts to prepare an analysis report on the progress of the deployment of the Single Window in the OIC Member States, highlighting the analysis of each country's feedback and the classification of experiences according to their level of maturity.

As a result of this analysis, a summary document will be presented detailing the points below:

- Mapping of states according to the maturity of the deployment of the Single Window;
- Constraints encountered;
- Recommendations and areas for improvement in order to advance the work on the implementation of the Single Windows.

Once the diagnosis has been established, training will be provided to the Single Window operators, which will be based on the following points:

1. Presentation of the benchmark;
2. Presentation of the study and analysis conducted;
3. Discuss the experiences of the countries participating in the training;
4. Simulation of a practical case.

The preliminary outcomes of the study are scheduled to be represented to the workshop on "Operationalization of Single Window and implementation of Trade Facilitation Agreement in Arab Countries" which will be organized by ICDT in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, on 16-18 April 2017.
