

Press Release

ICDT & IDB are organizing from Monday 26th October a 3 days Training Event on Agricultural negotiations within the WTO and its impact on Intra-OIC Trade

ICDT and the Country Strategy and Cooperation Department of the Islamic Development Bank (IsDB) are organizing a “Virtual Training Workshop on WTO agricultural negotiations and their impact on trade of agricultural products among the OIC Member States”, from Monday 26th to Wednesday 28th October 2020 via Zoom Platform.

The Workshop aims at building the capacities of Negotiating Officials and Representatives of the OIC Member States in the field of trade negotiations and agreements related to agricultural products.

This encounter, chaired by Mrs Latifa Elbouabdellaoui – Director General of ICDT, registers the participation of Representatives from the IDB Group, the Ministry in Charge of Foreign Trade of the Republic of Morocco and also of the COMCEC, IOFS, SESRIC, SMIIC, AOAD, BADEA, AfreximBank, WTO, UNCTAD and South Centre.

On this occasion, several OIC member Countries including Turkey, Morocco, Tunisia, Kazakhstan, Senegal, Nigeria, Bangladesh, Pakistan and Malaysia will present their experiences in terms of Agricultural negotiations within the WTO.